

DFMPC HAILED AS SIPAG AWARDEE

In recognition of the best practices of the community enterprise in increasing income and reducing poverty, Danlujan Farmers Multi Purpose Cooperative (DFMPC) in Pagadian City was awarded as one of the top 10 Most Promising Community Enterprises in the recently concluded 2013 Villar SIPAG (Social Institute for Poverty Alleviation and Governance) Awards on Poverty Reduction.

Amongst DFMPC's products and services were dairy product processing, general merchandising, organic farming and vermin composting.

NDA officials who graced the event were Administrator Grace Cenas, Admin and Finance Dept. Manager Jacqueline Seguin and Operations Manager Jaime M. Lopez.

The event was held last 13 December 2013 at Las Piñas City.
