

NDA-OIC visits North Luzon Farm

OIC –Adm. Naomi K. Torreta, did an on-site visit to the farm of Congressman Edwin Uy, who expressed interest to engage in dairying. NKT is seen conferring with Mr. Joe Marañon, Chief Liaison Officer of Cong. Uy, , together with North Luzon Field Office Manager , Dra. Charito R. Gemino.

The party of NKT and Cong. Uy’s staff as they head to the poultry farm leading to the cowshed where they have a couple of dairy animals.

Situated in a 10-ha. farm, the pasture area is planted to a variety of forage grasses like napier, stargrass, paragrass and guinea grasses.

Stargrass and guinea grass grow abundantly in one of the paddocks in the farm site.

A concrete water silo is located inside the farm to supply the water requirement of the farm needs.

Flowering plants like Hibiscus and bougainvilla abound in one section of the farm.

Fodder trees like madre de cacao lined the poultry house inside the farm.
