

New NDA Administrator Sworn in

Ms. Grace J. Cenas was sworn in yesterday, September 21, 2010 by Agriculture Secretary Proceso J. Alcala as the new NDA Administrator in a simple ceremony at the Department of Agriculture in Diliman, Quezon City.

Ms. Cenas was the former Regional Manager of the National Dairy Authority Visayas Field Office based in Mandaue ,Cebu City.

She was temporarily detailed at the Office of the Secretary, as part of the Technical Management Team prior to her appointment as new NDA administrator. Her first stint with the agency started in 1990 as Economist with the then Philippine Dairy Corporation (PDC) in August 6, 1990 as contractual employee for the Cebu Zero Base project, in connection with the Dairy Industry Development Model (DIDM). In May 5, 1991, she became the Project Manager up to December 31, 1994. From January 1, 1995 to June 1 , 1997, she moved to become the Executive Assistant. Then on June 2, 1997 to present, she assumed the role of Regional Manager 1 of the Visayas Island Office.

Ms Cenas finished her Bachelor of Science in Commerce, major in Accounting at St. Theresa's College and had a post-graduate course, MA-Economics at the University of San Carlos. She is a native of Cebu City, and is married to Mr. Wilson C. Cenas. They have a son, Wendell J. Cenas.

by:Ching Lumanta