

A New PR Guy in Town

Isabelo Sandino A. Lanoy, is the latest addition to the NDA family. A product of the Community of Learners Foundation from elementary up to high school, Dino as he is fondly called, had his tertiary education at the University of the Philippines in Baguio with BS Mathematics as his entry point from 2004-2008 . Then he transferred to UP Diliman, under the National College for Public Administration and Governance in 2008 until graduation.

Prior to working with NDA, he had his On the Job Training at the Foreign Branch Expansion and Monitoring Division at the Social Security System. He also became a researcher for the Presidential Communications Operation Office designing a news monitoring system on the press coverage on various issues, he also provides research materials and news articles for NBN 4.

Born June 26, 1986, Dino hails from Quezon City with parental roots from the province of Bohol.

With Dino assuming the post of NDA PR Man, we hope to achieve more mileage in the government sector.
