

UGNAY 2 BOOK LAUNCHING A SUCCESS!

The Bureau of Communication Services (BCS), an agency under the Presidential Communications Operations Office (PCOO) had a successful launching last July 19, 2014 at the National Library, T. M. Kalaw St., Ermita, Manila.

It was attended by various heads of public information offices from various government agencies.

Ugnay 2 is the much awaited sequel to the seminal and highly successful Ugnay which was launched last year. The original Ugnay 1 featured details of more than 500 publications produced by 42 agencies of 20 line departments. This time Ugnay 2 showcases publications from 41 agencies under the Office of the President and its attached agencies, other executive offices, government-owned and controlled corporations and constitutional offices.

The UGNAY series promises to be a successful and convenient resource for information to communication officers (public and private) and researchers alike. It will facilitate no less the access to the gamut of government publications and offer various government agencies a venue where they can showcase their information resources.

An SRO(spell-out) jampacked venue concludes that collaboration of all the agencies can do wonders in spreading the services available for the people.

Ms. Ching M. Lumanta represented NDA during the said event.
