

NDA joins 21st AGRILINK TRADE and EXHIBITS

Once again, the NDA 's pro-active participation in the recently concluded Agrilink Trade and Exhibits, last October 9-11, 2014 at the World Trade Center brought to the fore the dairy programs of NDA.

Joining the NDA in the booth were Sta. Maria Dairy Cooperative of Pulong Buhangin, Sta. Maria, Bulacan, Tita's Pastillas of San Ildefonso, Bulacan and DVF Dairy Farms of Talavera, Nueva Ecija. Dairy products ranging from fresh milk, choco milk, carabaos' milk and other variants of milk products like pastillas de leche, espasol de leche, gourmet cheese, kesong puti were showcased and sold during the 3-day event.

Prospective dairy business applicants were advised to submit their letter of intents to the office so that their requests can be acted upon immediately. They were also encouraged to visit existing dairy farmers so that they will have a person-to person encounter and learn from these models. These visits will be an eye opener on the how's and what's, why's of dairy farming.

The planting of forage was also emphasized as this is the one thing that needs utmost attention. Not to be forgotten is their passion and determination to engage in the activity without reservation.

This weekend event had throngs of people from all walks of life visiting the site to see the latest technologies at hand, the many varied plants and vegetables up for sale, farm machineries and gadgets that could help facilitate farming activities. Livestock comprising of goats, pigs, sheep, ducks, and birds were also up for sale. Veterinary products, feed and premixes were also a standout.

Seminars and agri-forum investments attracted most of the partipants.

The annual trade exhibit was participated by multi-nationals as well.

Ching M. Lumanta
Information Officer for Luzon
October 22, 2014